

EOFY 2026

Every purchase this EOFY should do more good.

Australian businesses spend billions on branded merchandise every year — and almost none of that spend creates any social value. PromoStuff was built to change that.

We supply exactly the same promotional products you'd find anywhere else, at the same price. The difference is what happens with the profit: 50% goes directly to Australian charities.

No extra cost. No extra effort. Just better procurement.

PromoStuff is a certified social enterprise — independently verified by Social Traders, Australia's only national social enterprise certification.
